ABOUT THE PROGRAM....

The Courses

The program will include two formal courses which will be offered through the UCLA School of Education and Information Studies (SEIS) and the Faculty of Extension at UCLA. The director of the program is Professor Carlos Alberto Torres. During the courses, we will invite scholars from UCLA and other universities. After completing the courses, enrolled students will receive a formal transcript from the Faculty of Extension, UCLA (9 credits in total). The course titles are as follows: Special Topics on Emerging Issues in Sociology of Education: Politics and Education and Special Topics in Comparative Education: The Dialectics of the Global and the Local.

Los Angeles is a city with diverse cultures. The program will include cultural activities, such as visit local preschool and museums, to enhance students' cultural experiences. At the same time, the program will hold town hall meetings for students to further explore the connection between practices and theories.

The Tuition

The tuition of the program will be USD$2,400 per person. The tuition will cover the instructors' and teaching assistants' salaries, student's library card, and complementary teaching activities. Airfare, housing, and living expenses will be the responsibility of the student. In order to prepare the program in advance, the first payment of USD$ 1,000 will need to be paid by March 31, 2023. Online payments can be made at <http://conferences.gseis.ucla.edu/paulo-freire-institute>. The rest of the payment, 1,400 USD$ needs to be paid by June 2, 2023. If enrolled students decide not to attend the courses after May 22, 2023 there will be a non-refundable fee of USD$ 400.

Housing

We recommend students to find their own housing at www.airbnb.com or other housing options available around the campus. Paulo Freire Institute will provide help and counsel if needed.
